

YOKOHAMA

ISOGO

Living in Isogo: A vibrant neighborhood in the hills by the sea

横浜
磯子

*Childcare, Recreation
Dining and Shopping
Local Community
Nature
Ocean
Culture and History
Snapshots of Everyday Life*

横浜市磯子区役所区政推進課
Isogo Ward Administration Office
City of Yokohama
TEL 045-750-2331 FAX 045-750-2533
E-MAIL is-kikaku@city.yokohama.jp

March 2021 Issue

I S O G O

Blue seas and open skies. Natural surrounds that exude the colors of the four seasons. Warm interpersonal connections.

Find a sense of serenity and live your own way in Isogo “磯子”, Yokohama.

Y O K O H A M A

A neighborhood to grow with

This town is filled with the cheerful voices of children. From parks on street corners, from neighborhood schools, and from sights filled with new encounters and discoveries waiting for you. Isogo is filled with places for children to play and learn, making it the ideal place to settle down with your children.

Takigashira Elementary School

Isogo-ku Childrearing Support Center ISOPIYO

Yokodai Ekimae Park Children's Log House

Takigashira Elementary School

Okamura Park

Hamagin Space Science Center

Yokodai Ekimae Park Play Park

Sugita Shopping Arcade

Yokodai Hamburger Pass Time

Patisserie Ungouter

A neighborhood with delicious food

Hama Market

Restaurant Shin

Yokodai Ekimae Arcade Sun Mall

The delicious delights loved by the locals. The everyday exchanges in a busy arcade. The more you go looking, the more chance you have of discovering a hidden favorite store off the beaten path. Enjoyable living surrounded by family and friends in a town with delicious food sure to bring a smile to the face.

Restaurant Shin

Isogo Festival

Sugita-Hachimangu Shrine Annual Festival (Reitai-sai)

Five Town Joint Bon Odori Dance Festival

Morisengen-jinja Shrine Festival

A neighborhood with a strong sense of community

Isogo offers plenty to see and do, including summer festivals, local festivals "Kenminsai", and many other seasonal festivals ran with the local community. On these days, everyone comes together as one. The casual conversations that start carry over to everyday living. Isogo has a warmth that brings people and the local community together.

Shiomidai area Kenminsai

Candle Night @ Yokodai

Yokodai Sancho Summer Festival

Okamura Plum-grove Plum Blossoms Festival

Shinsugita Park

A neighborhood with abundant nature

Hitorizawa Agricultural Area

Hitorizawa Citizens' Forest

Sugitatsubonomi

Gaze in wonder at the cherry blossoms in spring, and get your feet wet in the pristine rivers in summer. Catch a glimpse of cosmos swaying in the wind in autumn, and revel at plums in full bloom in winter. Outside the station, at the park, and on that well-trodden trail, wherever you are, the colors of the four seasons breathe life into Isogo. The rich colors of nature are ever-present in the lives of the local community.

Sugita Plum-grove Fureai Park

Yokodai Gocho

A neighborhood by the sea

Gaze out at the sea in the early afternoon while enjoying a pleasant stroll as the refreshing sea breeze whisks your worries away. Spot the cargo boat far off to the horizon, and catch the faint steam whistle from off yonder. As the sun descends, the glistening lights of the factory town stream into view. In the hustle of everyday life, the sea seemingly remains constant, yet always shows a slightly different view.

Yokohama Civic Yacht Harbor

Yokohama Fishing Piers

Sugita Seaside Green Zone

ENEOS Corporation Negishi Refinery

A neighborhood full of culture and history

Former count Higashifushimi Kunihide Villa (Kihinkan)

Kuraki Noh Stage Garden

Yokohama Tram Museum

Former Villa of Count Kunihide Higashifushimi (Kihinkan)

Okamura-Tenmangu Shrine

Tozenji Temple

Yokohama Tram Museum

Santonodai Ruins

Adventure!

People have called Isogo home since the ancient Jomon period. Historical remains that exude a sense of the exotic, the charmingly rustic European-style buildings, and the retro train cars give hints as to the practices and cultural background of Isogo. Visiting, touching, and tracing the footsteps of the past is sure to leave you all the more fonder of this town.

A neighborhood called Isogo

Trains race to and from town as Mt. Fuji casts its silhouette against the evening sun. Climb the slopes to a high vantage point for panoramic views of the sea and sky as far as the eye can see. Isogo is a town of many faces, and brings a little bit of happiness to everyday life.

Living in Isogo

Approx. 12 mins. to Sakuragicho Station

Approx. 15 mins. to Yokohama Station

Approx. 30 mins. to Shinyokohama Station

*Travel times based on departing from Isogo Station on the JR Negishi Line.

Hitorizawa Civic Forest

Play-Park

Community Festival

Okamura Park

Kamiōoka Sta.

Byōbugaura Sta.

Sugita Sta.

Shin-Sugita Sta.

Sugita Shopping Street

Yokohama Tram Museum

Negishi Sta.

Yokohama Sta.

Sakuragichō Sta.

Industrial Area

Isogo Sta.

Minatomirai

Yokohama Hakkeijima Seaparadise

