Contemplating This Passing Year

Fumiko Hayashi
Mayor of Yokohama

2019, this momentous year that raised the curtain on a new era for Japan as the Heisei Period ended and the Reiwa Period began, now has just one month left to run. This year, as we celebrated the 160th anniversary of the opening of the Port of Yokohama, we opened new cruise ship terminals on the harbor’s Shinko Pier and Daikoku Pier, continuing Yokohama’s rapid rise as a world-class cruise port. On top of furthering our record as a port that never says no to cruise ships calls, we were named as a finalist for Port of the Year Award in this year’s Seatrade Cruise Awards, the most influential awards in the industry. It was a first for Yokohama, and the first for any Asian port.

Again, we welcomed a flood of visitors from around and beyond Japan coming to Yokohama for RUGBY WORLD CUP™ JAPAN 2019 that wrapped all Japan in emotions and thrills, the Garden Necklace Yokohama flower festival, and the Yokohama Otomatsuri 2019 music festival, with you the people of Yokohama hosting them with your warm generosity and hospitality. Our streets were alive with energy this year.

And now, the grand finale to this years, NIGHT SYNC Yokohama 2019, an event that will illuminate the Yokohama night with colorful lighting. Centered in Minato Mirai 21’s Shinko District, we will bring you the kind of wonder and awe you can only savor in Yokohama through beautiful illuminations, video imagery using the latest in advanced technology, and dynamic stagings of light and music. Please enjoy this newest addition to the appeal of Yokohama.

This coming year the curtains will rise on the Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games at long last. We will be working to generate even more exuberance and energy than ever as we strive to create a Yokohama where all our citizens can live rich and fulfilling lives, both now and in the future.

I wish you all a peaceful and wonderful New Year.

A Program You Can Enjoy Anytime During the Period

A wide variety of digital content will be projected on the stage at Minato Mirai21's Shinko Central Plaza, including video imagery derived from Yokohama's history, artistic geometrical patterns, and even video imagery that changes in response to people's movements. There will be something to delight everyone, from children to adults.

There will also be illuminations in the plaza's planted areas, including flower illuminations in the shape of roses and color lighting for the plaza trees.

10-Minute Special Productions

During the course of NIGHT SYNC YOKOHAMA there will be dynamic special productions of light and music using color illumination of building walls, searchlight and more, all synchronized between Shinko Central Plaza and eight nearby facilities and lasting approximately 10 minutes each at 18:00, 19:00, 20:00 and 21:00. This never before attempted experimental performance will simultaneously control lights set up at multiple buildings to make the whole district its stage.

In addition, during these 10-minute special productions we will deploy Web AR (augmented reality) technology to allow visitors to overlay digital imagery on top of the actual images captured by their smartphone cameras. Visitors can enjoy an interactive experience by creating their own personalized "productions" of the events.

Synchronizing the City with Light

For the duration of NIGHT SYNC YOKOHAMA there will also be special lighting installations at the Kanagawa Prefectural Office, Yamashita Park, and the Yokohama Art Museum. In sync with the Shinko District main event space, they will further light up the Yokohama night.

We will also be providing information on the homepage of the official Night Sync Yokohama homepage about other illuminations around the city and more to help you enjoy your own excursions through the color-swathed streets of Yokohama.
